

THE INDIANAPOLIS NEWS,

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1918

PENALTIES, DARK WINDOWS

Seven Business Houses to Be Lightless 30 Nights Because of Violations.

Seven Indianapolis business men, reported to have violated the federal lightless night ruling Monday night and last night, today were ordered by Martin Rehfuess, Jr., fuel administrator for Marion county, to keep the window display lights and sign lights at their places of business dark for the next thirty nights, as a penalty for violations. Those affected by the order are Stewart & Stephens, grocers, Delaware and Ohio streets; the New Commercial Hotel, 217½ South Illinois street; Peter Thomas, tobacconist, 150 West Washington street; John B. Given, tobacconist, 52 South Illinois street; Cooper & Pitman, shining parlor, 606 Indiana avenue; James A. Breeding, barber shop, 135½ North Illinois street, the Chevrolet garage, 719 North Illinois street.