

CHEVROLET'S BROTHER SUES

Louis Chevrolet, administrator of the estate of his brother, Gaston L. Chevrolet, who was killed recently in an automobile race in California, yesterday filed suit in Probate court asking Judge Bash to grant a judgment of $2,000 against C. L. Snyder to recover money which Snyder is alleged to be holding from the estate. According to the plaintiff, Snyder accepted from Gaston Chevrolet a total of $1,625, which was to pay for stock in a company which has never been organized.
