
HELD FOR GRAND LARCENY

Former Hospital Porter Said to Have Taken Watch.

George Johnston, age twenty-five, formerly employed as a porter at the City Hospital, was arrested Thursday night on a charge of grand larceny by Patrolmen Everson and Schribner and is held in the city prison pending further investigation. The police say Johnston is alleged to have stolen a watch from Arthur Chevrolet, automobile race driver, when Chevrolet was at the hospital.