

The Detroit Free Press

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1942

Trophies Sacrificed for Victory Scrap Drive

Out of the archives and into the Victory scrap pile were hauled these numerous racing and athletic trophies won by Buick teams in the past, most famous of which was the pioneering racing team of Louis Chevrolet and Bob Burman, driving the 1910 Buick Bug. Most of the cups were accumulated in the early racing days of the automobile industry. They contain critical metals needed in today's total war effort.