
RACE DRIVERS HELD ON CHARGE OF INTOXICATION

WINCHESTER, Ind., Sept. 2.—Ralph and Omar Ormsby, race drivers of Fort Wayne, were arrested here with Arthur Chevrolet of Indianapolis, charged with intoxication and operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor. They pleaded not guilty and their trial was set for Wednesday before Mayor Ross. It is alleged by Officer Garrett, that when he attempted to arrest the men, that the driver of the machine tried to run him down.

Ralph Ormsby won first place in each of the four events on the annual Labor day auto racing program here.
